

Our Expertise Your Assurance

LUKCHERY, boasting decades of combined experience in aquaculture and fisheries, personally selects and imports the finest Persian caviar. Our commitment to quality and sustainability guarantees an unparalleled experience.

What we do?

We source the finest, most sustainable caviar from Iran, import it to the Netherlands, and offer it to discerning customers seeking an organic, exclusive and premium experience. We currently offer top-quality Iranian caviar under our premium brand, CYRUS CAVIAR.

Is our Caviar Sustainable?

In short: We make it sustainable

At Cyrus Caviar, sustainability is at the heart of everything we do:

Social Responsibility

We empower farmers by creating a stable market that enhances their livelihoods.

Fair Trade Practices

We pay above-market prices to support ethical sourcing and premium quality.

Environmental Impact

For every sturgeon harvested, 1,050 baby sturgeons are released into the Caspian Sea actively preserving the future of wild caviar and supporting marine sustainability.

Luxury with a purpose indulge responsibly with Cyrus Caviar.
